

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Christine Lewis

Christine has pursued her creative interests since an early retirement from her career as a Palliative Care Nurse in 2003. She has attended numerous informal art classes but is however, largely self-taught.

She enjoys painting within a variety of genres, particularly portraiture and still life. Her most recent works portray people both at play and work. She works in both acrylic and oil paints, and is currently experimenting in other mediums, including clay and lino cut print making.

Christine has successfully entered many Art Shows and a number of her works are in private collections. She is currently based at Le Studio Artspace in Mordialloc, Victoria.
